Patxaran

Sloe Berry Liqueur

Navarra, Spain

PRODUCTION

A traditional, handcrafted Basque liqueur. Whole sloe berries from the blackthorn shrub are macerated with anise spirits, cinnamon and coffee beans for eight months.

TASTING NOTE

Deep amber-brick color. Sweet, with a lush texture, scents of licorice and cinnamon, with ripe plum, anise and toffee flavors.

FOOD PAIRING

A distinctive and unique liqueur. Serve slightly chilled, or on-the-rocks as a digestive.

PRONUNCIATION

In Basque, the “TX” combination of letters is pronounced “CH”, like chips. Here, it is PAH-CHA-RAN.
