

VILLA CALCINAIA

Grappa

Greve in Chianti, Tuscany, Italy

PRODUCTION

Produced following an ancient Chianti recipe. Must from Sangiovese grapes left over from wine production at Villa Calcinaia (skins, seeds, semi-fermented juice) are fermented slowly. The alcoholic liquid that results is then distilled continuously in an alembic still (a column, not a pot.)

TASTING NOTE

Crystal clear. Fragrant, with classic vinous notes and hints of spice. Strong and clean. Vegan.

Villa Calcinaia is situated in the center of Chianti Classico near the town of Greve-in-Chianti. This historic estate has been home to the Counts Capponi since 1524, where they produce wine, Vin Santo, olive oil, red wine vinegar, and grappa.
